Creating an Inclusive School, 2nd Edition (recommended by Dr. Alice Udvari-Solner)
Editors Richard A. Villa & Jacqueline S. Thousand
$26.95

As the percentage of students with disabilities continues to increase, you can make sure your school provides the least restrictive environment for these students by using this updated guide to inclusion. Experts on inclusion share their wisdom and daily practices, including classroom and school wide strategies for providing the best educational opportunities for all students. Learn the impact of the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) legislation on special needs students, and explore promising curricular and instructional practices that foster inclusive education, including cooperative learning, teaming, multiage grouping, multicultural education, social skills training, and technology applications.

Personal stories about special needs students, and the parents and educators, who work with them, vividly portray the challenges and benefits that come with an inclusive approach to schooling.

From Emotions to Advocacy, 2nd Edition

Special education services are intensive and expensive. Resources are limited. If you have a child with special needs, you may wind up battling the school district for the services your child needs. To prevail, you need information, skills, and tools. Pete and Pam Wright teach you how to plan, prepare, organize - and get quality special education services.

The second edition of Wrightslaw: From Emotions to Advocacy (FETA-2) was revised to include key statutes in IDEA 2004 and No Child Left Behind, new information about tests used to evaluate children, including the WISC-IV, and dozens of educational achievement tests.

Wrightslaw IDEA 2004
$14.95

Wrightslaw: IDEA 2004 will help you find answers to your questions in the reauthorized statute.

Wrightslaw: IDEA 2004 by Peter W. D. Wright and Pamela Darr Wright includes the full text of Parts A and B of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act of 2004 (IDEA 2004 with analysis, commentary and cross-references. Wrightslaw: IDEA 2004 also includes several appendices, a glossary of acronyms, abbreviations and terms, and a bibliography of resources.

Wrightslaw: IDEA 2004 is designed to meet the needs of parents, teachers, advocates, attorneys, related services providers, school psychologists, administrators, college professors, hearing officers, and employees of district and state departments of education.
